

SEGALL TRIAL
BEFORE JURY

Attorneys For Both Sides
Take Up "Court's Time" Making Objections.

The Rotarian luncheon at the Paso del Norte Hotel at noon Thursday was divided between the chamber of commerce budget fund, a talk upon American office by Dr. Louis Grossman, of Cincinnati, Ohio, and the selection of a jury to serve at the mock trial of J. P. Segall before the next Thursday's luncheon. Mr. Segall is charged with having sold a gold brick to Edgar Kayser, of the First National Bank.

The chief defense advanced by his counsel is that he opened a way for securing money without going through formalities. The trial is being held before Rabbi Martin Zielonka, acting as "judge."

The attorneys for the defense were grouped at one table, far enough from the prosecution to avoid any personal encounter. The list consisted of H. B. McClintock, E. C. Davis, Don Hathorn, G. A. Martin, E. H. Dale, and W. R. "Wee" Williams. They were notably and ably grouped about the other tables were the attorneys for the prosecution, who ran down the character of the defendant. This group was led by E. W. Kayser, the man said to have received the brick, Robert Krakauer, R. B. Orndorff, Roger F. Stewart, A. J. Strayer and Ed. D. Lachman.

In selecting the jurors for the trial, both sides did not hesitate to resort to any kind of corruption and intimidation. Absolutely committing the jurors to the respective sides, tearing down their character, personality and business practices, the following jurors were examined: J. P. Miller, H. O. Wilson, Clarence Adams, W. H. Wagner, Dean D. Clark, W. T. Hixson and Ralph D. Converse. None was selected.

Jurors All Objected To.
Miller was objected to by the defense because he had lost at poker to Segall. Clarence Adams was objected to by the prosecution because he "knew too much about gold and gold bricks." Ralph Converse was objected to by the defense because he had done business with the defendant. W. H. Wagner by the prosecution because he expected to do business with him.

The defense objected to the rabbi as judge because it was alleged that

Today And A Generation Hence

The flight of time makes us think of the future. The baby of today reflects what greatness may be acquired when he grows up. And any influence that brings relief to the sufferer is the first and greatest of obligations. There is a splendid remedy known as "Mother's Friend" that has been a safeguard, a helpful daily influence, to a host of mothers growing out of the mother to the mother who become plant, they stretch without undue pain, there is an absence of distress, the nerves are soothed by taking away the burden of leaving all to just natural conditions. There is in "Mother's Friend" the direct and immediate help that all expectant mothers require. In view of their own hand, guided by their own minds, they learn at once the blessed relief from morning sickness resulting from undue stretching. They experience daily calm and a slightly rest. It is indeed "Mother's Friend." Get a bottle today of any drugist. Then write Bradford Regulator Co., 410 Lodge Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for one of the most enterprising little books ever presented. It is worth writing for.

ASPHALT ROAD IS COMPLETED

Last Rail Connecting New Copper Camp With Rest of World Is Laid.

Tucson, Ariz., Jan. 20.—The last rail of the Tucson, Gila Bend and Ajo road, connecting the Ajo district with the outside world, has been laid and the trains will be running between Gila Bend, on the Southern Pacific, and the new town of Cornelia, which is growing up around the big copper camp of the Calumet and Arizona Mining company. Finishing touches are still to be made at various places along the line, but to all intents and purposes the railroad is now completed. A regular train schedule is expected to be inaugurated in about three weeks.

The opening of the railroad is expected to bring about the rejuvenation of one of the oldest mining regions of the southwest, for it will afford transportation facilities not only to the New Cornelia property of the Calumet and Arizona, but also to a score of smaller properties which have long been forced to lie idle.

It is understood that work on the big leaching plant at Cornelia, for which plans have long since been made, will be commenced promptly. It was necessary to complete the railroad in order to transport materials for the plant to the property.

Kayser was a larger contributor to the synagogue than Segall. The day being devoted to the existing subscriptions for the chamber of commerce budget, R. B. Orndorff spoke before the Rotarian club, saying: "Our motto and the very foundation of the Rotarian is founded in 'the profits most who serves best,' and before you can serve yourselves well, you first have to be surrounded by a condition of prosperity in the community in which you are doing business," he said.

"Why did you decide to locate here instead of in a cow pasture? Why did you select El Paso? The answer is you go where there are people, and people want to be where the people are. 'Live ones.' Cooperation means hard money and team work and the chamber of commerce is the latest and highest development of the cooperative principle."

The City's Welfare.
"Don't forget to maintain your life itself largely through the city in which you live; your prosperity is largely dependent upon the city's welfare. You know of many ways in which this welfare can be promoted—a spirit of greater confidence in the city, willingness to work unselfishly for its best interest, and a love of progress among the citizenship would in themselves accomplish wonders."

"You owe the city in which you live a debt. That city has produced, or is the means of bringing to you practically everything that makes life worth living. This is a tremendous service. You can pay for it, in part at least, by working with the city and contributing to the best interests of the city."

The American Viewpoint.
Dr. Grossman spoke upon the difference in the American viewpoint which cares for nothing in philosophy unless it be adaptable; as contrasted with classic periods where the emphasis was placed upon beauty as the highest morality. He characterized the American attitude as growing out of the material and said that when reviewed in history it would be a classical epoch in itself.

The guests attending upon the luncheon were Edward H. Hasley, J. F. R. Roy, E. Briggs, G. L. Simons, Charles A. Braun, Paul D. Thomas, Dr. Louis Grossman, Cincinnati, Ohio; M. B. Meyers, Los Angeles, and O. J. Allen.

To Fortify The System Against Grip.
When Grip is prevalent LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE should be taken, as this combination of Quinine with other ingredients, destroys germs, acts as a Tonic and Laxative and thus keeps the system in condition to withstand Cold, Grip and Influenza. There is only one "BROMO QUININE." E. W. GROVES' signature on box. 25c.

GLOBE-MIAMI ROAD

MAY SOON BE PAVED

Globe, Ariz., Jan. 20.—County engineer Roy Thomas has been authorized by the board of supervisors to prepare figures to be used as a basis for a call for bids for the paving of the Globe-Miami road, a distance of about 10 miles, with part of the $250,000 to be secured through the issuance of the recently voted bonds.

NINETY-EIGHT DEGREES.

It is certainly queer.

How a woman's heart deep.

Can call a man her?

And then make him feel cheap.

It was one of those hot village days.

Simon Simons, the closest man in Pittsburg, sat on his front porch,

with his back to the street, shaking his head.

So methodical, so continuous, was the meditation of Simon Simons' head, that old Doc Mustwood, coming by with his friend and colleague from the city, Dr. Erasmus, stopped and gazed at the miserably stationary back and wagging head.

"Wall, wall," said Doc Mustwood, "I don't see of old Simon ain't in some manner. Must be one of those cases of this here Spiniolitis Shakemortus I

been reading 'bout in them there medicinal papers of yours."

"Certainly not," decided Dr. Erasmus

in his clipped voice. "Plainly, it's a very good example of Spiniolitis Wag-genditis. Let us ascend the porch and examine him in the interests of science."

"Sure, sure, for Simon's sake, too,"

said Doc Mustwood. And the two doctors got up on Simon's porch and discovered that he had a fan in his hand,

which he was holding quite stationary. "Hello, Doc, I've discovered something in the line of economy every minute," said Simon. "I've found that I was my head instead of 'wagging'

the fan, and that saves wear and tear

on the fan and saves me the breeze blowing on my face. You gotta hand it to me, Doc. You gotta hand it to me."

The physicians handed it to him, one each eye, and pursued the even tenor of their way.
